FLOOR DEBATE

March 17, 2004 LB 46

this Mr. Vampola has done one heck of a job, along with the other people on the Parole Board. This is what we've wanted. This is public safety. And I know you'll vote for him. Thank you.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Pedersen. Further discussion on the report offered by the Judiciary Committee. Seeing no lights on, Senator Brashear; he waives closing. The question before the body is the report offered by the Judiciary Committee. All in favor of the report vote aye, opposed nay. We're voting on the report offered by the Judiciary Committee. All in...have you all voted who care to? Record please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Record vote, Legislative Journal page 1080.) 34 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the confirmation report.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The motion was successful. Mr. Clerk, next report.

CLERK: Mr. President, Judiciary Committee, chaired by Senator Brashear, reports on the appointments to the Community Corrections Council.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Brashear, to open on your report.

SENATOR BRASHEAR: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the body. On February 19, 2004, your Judiciary Committee held hearings with regard to seven new appointees to the Community Corrections Council. You will recall that this is a new entity which you created last year in LB 46. This is a part of the initiative with regard to community corrections, of which you have very much been a part. These are, therefore, all new nominees. I would represent to you that as to each of the seven nominees--I'm trying to be efficient here--we had before us the gubernatorial letter of appointment, the gubernatorial certificate of appointment, the executive position application which had been completed by the individual applicants, and a statement of financial interest as filed with the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission. All of these
